AT SCHOOL MEETING

MEMBERS OF RURAL BOARDS CUSS SCHOOL PROBLEM

RURAL INSPECTOR HERE

H. H. Harriwood Delivers an Interesting Address—Pupils Give Demonstration.

Members of the rural school boards of the country are in annual session today at the court houses and despite the bad roads a large number are in attendance. A program which included discussions of school problems occupied the morning hours with this afternoon devoted to short talks by board members and witnessing a demonstration of vitalized agriculture by pupils of some of the schools.

An interesting address this afternoon by H. H. Harriwood, state inspector of rural schools. Mr. Harriwood said the rural school board was clothed with more power, if it cared to use it, thany any other organization in the county, pointing out that they were in position to direct the control of the boys and girls before they came into contact with other things. Mr. Harriwood took occasion to compliment Superintendent Cooper on the work he has done and said the Nodaway county superintendent had a reputation among the county school superintendents of the state and state officers of a man who was doing things and getting out of the beaten path in such a way as was proving for the advancement of the pupils of the schools.

The demonstration in vitalized agriculture occupied more than an hour and those who saw the rope tying and splicing, the measuring, the drying process for fruits and vegetables, the carpentry, etc., commented freely on the practicability and value of the new method.

D. A. R. PLAY WAS ENJOYABLE

Large Audience Saw "Betsey aHll" and Other Features of Good Program at Empire Last Night.

"Betsey Hall," presented by the ladies of the D. A. R., at the Empire theatre last night afforded a large audience plenty of entertainment, introducing in pantomine stately colonial dames and damsels and bewigged gentlemen who "acted out" the play in a most delightful manner. The play was followed by a melange of features, patriotic and otherwise, that gave variety to the performance. In the absence of the spoken word the handsome costumes were causes fr much comment, and the intermingling of silk and satin gowns with the bright hued apparel of the gentlemen made a kaleideoscope of color especially in the old fashioned minuet and dances, the latter being the most popular numbers of the evening.

Patriotic tableux which included everything from the Red Cross and Salvation Army to Joan of Arc and the Spirit of '61 were well presented and evoked much applause.

Sixty people participated in the production, the D. A. R. ladies being assisted by members of the Zero club.

WILSON IS DEFIANT

THROWS DOWN GAUNTLET TO OPPONENTS OF LEAGUE PLAN

ASKS PEOPLE TO DECIDE

Test of American Sentiment Will Clear All Doubts as To Its Acceptability, He Asserts.

Boston, Feb. 25.—President Wilson in his first speech here yesterday afternoon on landing from France invited the critics of the league of nations plan to "test the sentiment of America." Men he declared who would have America fail the world in its hopes, saw only beyond the nearest horizon.

"They do not know the sentiment of America," he said.

Speaking of hopes and aspirations of the people of Europe for a lasting peace, which he said, were pointed to the United States, and the "friend of mankind," the President said he had no more doubt of "the verdict of America in this matter than I have doubt of the blood that is in me."

The nations of the world have set their heads now to do a great thing and they are not going to stop short of their purpose. "I do not speak of the governments, but of the peoples who will see that if their present governments do not do their will, some others will. And the secret is out and the present governments know it.

"I have come back for an attempt to transact business for a little while in America, but I say in all soberness that I have been trying to speak your thoughts. Probing deep in my heart and trying to see the things that are right rather than the things that are expedient, I am finding the heart of America.

"I find that in loving America I have joined the majority of my fellow men throughout the world."

"I invite him to test the sentiments of the nation. We set this up to make men free and we did not confine our conception and purpose to America, and now we will make men free. If we did not do that the fame of America would be gone and all her powers would be dissipated. She then would have to keep her power for those narrow, selfish provincial purposes which seem so dear to some minds that have no sweep beyond the nearest horizon. I should welcome no sweeter challenge than that. I have fighting blood in me and it is sometimes a delight to let it have scope, but if it is a challenge on this occasion it will be an indulgence. Think of the picture, think of the utter blackness that would fall on the world. America has failed! America made a little essay at generosity, and then withdrew! America said, 'We are your friends,' but it was only for today, not tomorrow. America said, 'Here is our power to vindicate right!' and then the next day said, 'Let right take care of itself and we will take care of ourselves.' America said, 'We set up a light to lead men along the paths of liberty, but we have lowered it. It is intended only to light our own path.' We set up a great deal of liberty and then we said, 'Liberty is a thing that you must win for yourself. Do not call upon us,' and think of the world that we would leave. Do you realize how many new nations are going to be set up in the presence of old and powerful nations in Europe and left there, if left by us, without a disinterested friend?

"Do you believe in the Polish cause, as I do? Are you going to set up Poland, immature, inexperienced, as yet unorganized and leave her with a circle of armies around her? Do you believe in the aspiration of the Czecho-Slovaks and the Jugo-Slavs, as I do? Do you know how many powers would be quick to pounce upon them if there were not the guarantees of the world behind their liberty?

"Have you thought of the suffering of Armenia? You poured out your money to help succor the Armenians after they suffered; now set your strength so that they shall never suffer again.

"The arrangements of the present peace cannot stand a generation unless they are guaranteed by the united forces of the civilized world. And if we do not guarantee them, cannot you see the picture? Your hearts have instructed you where the burden of this war fell. It did not fall upon the national treasuries; it did not fall upon the instruments of administration; it did not fall upon the resources of the nations. It fell upon the victims' homes everywhere, where women were toiling in hope that their men would come back."

HUNT TAX-DODGERS

REVENUE DEP'T. HAS NO RELIEF FOR VIOLATORS

ROUND UP DELINQUENTS

A Large Staff Is Maintained to Classify Those Who Fail to Fulfill Their Obligations to Uncle Sam

Washington, Feb. 21.—How does Uncle Sam deal with tax-dodgers? This inquiry, which was promoted by the severe penalties provided in the new revenue bill, has brought from Commissioner Daniel C. Roper a frank statement as to the Internal Revenue Bureau's attitude toward those who attempt to evade taxation.

"Any person who deliberately conceals tax liability, or who falsifies a return in order to reduce or evade any internal revenue tax, or who deliberately abets such concealment or fraud, finds arrayed against him the entire strength of this Bureau pressing for the full civil and criminal penalties. That is the attitude toward the tax-dodger, expressed in one sentence. Whether he is a moonshiner, a stealthy trafficker in habit-forming drugs, a juggler of income figures, a delinquent in making the sworn return the law requires, or a revenue violator of any other kind, the Bureau is charged with the duty of hunting him out and exacting the full punishment provided in the law.

"Toward the taxpayer who means to comply with the internal revenue laws, fully and honestly, the Bureau extends a helping hand. Cooperation with the taxpayer is our watchword and objective.

"These two contracts—the teeth of the law for the taxdodger and the violator, and the aid of every lawful agency for the voluntary taxpayer—are policies necessary to the administration of tax laws under modern conditions.

"One of the most difficult of the many problems in tax collecting is to classify those who fail to fulfil the obligations imposed by law. The Bureau is oblidged to maintain a large staff and to use the utmost discretion in properly labeling these cases. Even handed justice is a heavy responsibility, and only through careful siftings can delinquents be classified.

"There are three distinct classes of delinquency with which we have to deal. First, the taxpayer who had reasonable cause, brought about by exceptional condtions beyond his control; secondly, the fellow who didn't look up or didn't realize his obligations; and thirdly, the person who wilfully evaded compliance with the law.

"As for the man who shows a reasonable cause within certain lines established by the Bureau, no penalties are asserted. All other delinquents are more carefully investigated before prosecution is begun. Many of these offenses are caused by ignorance and negligence. Failure to make the reports required by law may in some cases warrant severe penalty, as where the delinquent continues his delinquency after being warned of the penalty for failure to make return. However, if the delinquent takes immediate corrective action, and it is clearly established through investigation that he did not wilfully violate the law, the Bureaeu allows him to compromise his liability to specific penalty by teendering a nominal sum of money. In such instances the money is not really in compromise, but assesesd to impress the taxpayer against future violations.

"But there is no relief, no compromise, for the man who wilfully evades, wilfully neglects, or wilfully falsifies. He is classed with other law breakers in the eyes of the Bureau, and is vigorously prosecuted in the courts. No other course is open to the Bureau, in meeting fairly and squarely the demand of the willing taxpayer, "I will, the other man must." There is a solemn responsibility thus existing between the honest taxpayer and the Bureau to locate and punish the dishonest taxdodger.

"And it is such a big thing that the willing taxpayer must have the guarantee of this Bureau that the laggards, the jugglers and the violators will not escape taxation and penalties. The Bureau is fulfilling its part of this contract with the people—this contract that means so much in the practical, effective and just administration of the Internal Revenue laws."

I have to slave to get ready and am constantly on a nervous strain for fear something will be not just right; and then when the guests are sitting around enjoying themselves, I have to be on the go. If I approach a group of them, they cease talking and that makes me think they are talking about me or my arrangements. Then after it is all over and the guests depart, I have to slave again. I have given my last party.

It seems easy enough for a town to be good when the grand jury and court are in session. Same way when a revival meeting is in progress. When they pass on the old town relapses into the old rut pretty much.

Of course, it's bone dry in Maryville therefore this story. Although his wife herself tells it on her husband, surely it did not happen here. But we refuse to doubt the word of a lady, so here it is: The family lives on—well, maybe the number of the street should not be mentioned—but anyway, there is a baby four months old in the family and it has been crying a good deal at nights lately. The other night Husband went to "lodge" and returned in the early morning somewhat the worse for his entertainment. He dreaded an interview with his wife, and as he entered the home, slipped off his shoes and, seeing the baby cradle, was inspired. He sat down and began vigorously rocking the cradle, thinking when his wife awakened she would believe he was caring for his offspring. She heard him crooning and asked him what he was doing. "I have been here two hours trying to get the baby to sleep," he explained. "That's funny," she sneered. "The baby's here in bed with me."

Women talk much about the "prevailing style of hats." Now, what we want is a little light on the subject. Frinstance, today two women came into the office, each wearing a new lid, 1919 spring model. One turned up at the rear very pronouncedly, with a great feather sticking straight up behind, worn well down in front, cut bias, with a wide running board on the left side; the other reared up in front, worn well down in the back, narrow running board on the left, wide feather hanging at half mast over the starboard side. The two were in direct opposition, yet we were told by each lady that her's was the latest style this spring.

Talking about celebrating Father Son week. Harking back to our childhood days we can remember when "father and son" week was celebrated in the woodshed and was a very "formal" meeting. The occasion was celebrated about once a week, on an average.

CLUB TO MARKET FARM PRODUCT

LaFayette County Farmers Co-operate in Buying and Selling.

Lexington, Mo., Feb. 24.—The farmers of LaFayette county have organized twenty-one farm clubs to aid them in marketing their products and in the purchase of supplies.

The agent of the county's farm bureau secures quotations on commodities needed by the members and compiles exchange lists for the farmers of the county. These are either forwarded direct to the individuals or are presented at the regular meetings of the clubs. In case a local club is unable to use an entire car of any desired commodity, their delegates to the county association, which meets once a month, are instructed to combine their orders with those reported by other delegates. In this way car lot orders are made up and the members share equally in the benefits derived.

County Agent F. W. Caldwell reports that many cars of corn, barley feed, mill feed, cotton seed cake, oil meal, salt, twine, and fertilizer have been ordered, and smaller quantities of alfalfa seed, clover seed, seed corn, seed wheat, soy beans and cowpeas purchasd. Carloads of hogs, cattle, and sheep have been made up for shipment to market and wool pooled and marketed. Markets for apples have been located by the bureau's agents, and it is expected that this service will soon be extended to include poultry, eggs and dairy products.

These are two most estimable families and will be greatly missed in this community, but their many friends will wish them prosperity in their new home.

L. V. Arnold of Parnell received from his son, George, who is in Germany, a German officer's helmet yesterday. On the front of the helmet is inscribed the words, "Mi-Fur Koenig Und-Vaterland." On the inside is written in ink the words "Leschert, Comando," possibly the officer's name. The helmet is of patent leather and well made. George speaks of sending the helmet in a letter to his father which appears in this issue.

Fred Lyle of Ravenwood received a letter Tuesday from his son, Norvel, who is still on the U. S. S. Pennsylvania and floundering in waters of the Atlantic off the south coast of cuba. He tells that the boys are now sleeping on the upper deck and enjoying the warm days immensely. He says he had not seen so many palm trees and that in every respect there was summer.

Norvel says that all of the boys want to get away from the service, now that the task that they wanted a share in has been finished. The fleet has assembled in the southern waters to have annual practice.

Uncle Ed Stuart presented the Ravenwood Gazette editor with a piece of Mexican money used a couple of years ago by Villa and his gang. It was sent to him by his nephew, C. B. Shane, who runs an engine on one of the railroads out of the mines. While it was worth fifty cents to them it would be hard to get anything out of a carload of it now.

J. B. Joy of Buena Vista, Colo., and son, Andy Joy, recently in the aviation service, came to Elmo Thursday evening, on No. 3. Mr. Joy and Andy both were looking well. Andy was discharged from the service Wednesday. He was at Kelley Field, Texas.

A deal has been made by which Mrs. Anne Neff becomes the owner of what used to be known as the Dr. Collings property in Elmo, consisting of a house and six lots. This deal makes Mrs. Neff the owner of ten lots in the block. It is understood that Mrs. Neff will build a new house this season, on or near the site of the old one.

Rola B. Fleming visited in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fleming of Hopkins, from Thursday until Monday. Rolla has been connected with the military police of the 8th Division which has just been demobilized at Camp Dodge. He has already resumed his position as night agent in the Creston freight house.

Through the agency of Frank Melick the Fred Wooldridge property in Hopkins was sold this week to Dr. S. D. Large the consideration being $6,250, Fred taking the brick business house occupied by the Owl Pharmacy at $4,000. Dr. Large gets possession of his new home the first of next month and Mr. Wooldridge and family will occupy rooms over the Wooldridge clothing store until suitable property can be secured.

The Thrift Loan—

has been emphasized during the past two years by Uncle Sam to the extent that Americans are learning to save. It is a good habit and formed early will lead to success, to affluence.

Has It Ever—

occured to you that the MARYVILLE HOMESTEAD & LOAN ASSOCIATION could get you started saving in a way that is not only easy, but which will prove its own value.

A few dollars saved each month and put into share of stock—or, if you prefer, as a payment on a home of your own—gives you a profit each year. Hundreds of the best citizens of Maryville started in a small way by investing in shares of stock which they later saw turned into substantial home of their own. The more you add to it, the more it keeps growing.

It is the safe and satisfactory way for the salaried man, to begin the saving habit with a view to gaining a competence—something to fall back on in times of emergency.

For the man of means it is a safe and secure investment that will bring a good return.

You will be surprised at the advantages that are offered by our plan. It has been a success for hundreds during the past twenty-five year—it cannot but help being a success for you.

GREAT FRENCH SACRIFICE CALLS FOR WORLD'S GRATITUDE.

The French have suffered and bled more than any other nation at war. Of her 36 million population, 6 million were placed in the trenches and have poured out their blood on the altar of Liberty. America will ever remember this heroic sacrifice. It is likewise not unmindful of the great service to the world rendered by the French peasants who have given it a perfect remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal disorders, which is reported to have relieved incalculable suffering, saved thousands of lives and prevented innumerable surgical operations. Geo. H. Mayr, prominent Chicago chemist, imports and sells it in this country under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucous from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Maryville Drug Co. and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

WOULD DECORATE WOMEN

Congress May Give President Power to Honor Workers.

Agitation begun in Congress may result in giving the President power to decorate women who have rendered valiant service in the war. That action had not been taken before has come as a surprise and senators who advocated the measure say the matter has been overlooked.

Besides the conferring of medals other honors would be given women who remain in the service, according to plans already voiced. Military nurses would be given military ranking. The opinion has been given that some of the war workers should receive even the congressional medal of honor, the distribution of which is guarded with utmost jealousy.

FAVOR MORTGAGE TAX LAW

Real Estate Dealers Urge Proposed Recording Bill.

Jefferson City, Feb. 20.—Forest C. Donnell of St. Louis, representing the Real Estate Loan Dealers' Association of Missouri, and delegations from Kansas City and St. Louis appeared before the senate and ways means committee yesterday afternoon and urged the enactment of the mortgage tax recording law.

Speaking for the association, Donnell said the measure introduced in the senate by Senator Harris of Boone met with the approval of all theh real estate loan dealers in Missouri. In lieu of all other taxes it is proposed to have notes secured by mortgages on Missouri real estate recorded and pay over a period of five years at the rate of 15 cents per $100. Counties are authorized to levy a similar tax of five cents, cities 3 and schools 3. The tax must be paid when the notes are recorded and notes that are not recordedare made noncollectable. In cases where notes are renewed, the same tax must be paid at the time of renewal. This tax is in lieu of all other forms of taxation. If a note runs for ten years, it will pay the same tax as if it was due in half that period of time. The state tax is 4 cents on the $100, and the county, city and school taxes would make the total tax but 15 cents on the $100, over a period of five years.

Pershing Changed His Religion.

From the Indianapolis News.

General Pershing was understood to be a Presbyterian, but according to published reports he has lately been confirmed as a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church. The Living Church states that the confirmation service took place in France and was conducted by the Right Rev. Charles H. Brent, bishop of Western New Yor.

Our Soldier Dead.

"In Flanders field, where poppies blow,"
In France where beauteous roses grow
There let them rest—forever sleep,
While we eternal vigil keep
With our heart's love—with our soul's pray'r,
For all our Fallen, "Over There,"

The sounding sea between us rolls
And in perpetual requiem tolls—
Three thousand miles of cheerless space
Lit 'twixt us and their resting place;
'Twas God who took them by the hand
And left them in the stranger land.

The earth is sacred where they fell—
Forever on it lies the spell
Of hero deeds in Freedom's cause,
And men unborn shall come and pause
To say a prayer or bow the head,
So leave these graves to hold their dead.

Let not our sighing nor our tears
Fall on them thru the coming years,
Who on the land, on sea, in air,
With dauntless courage everywhere,
Their home and country glorified—
Stood to their arms, and smiling died.
Great France will leave no need nor room

That we place flowers on their tomb—
And proudly o'er their resting place,
Will float forever in its grace,
O'er cross, and star, and symbol tag,
Their own beloved country's Flag.

Oh, Henry!

How big is Henry Allen, Pa,
Who hails from Kansas state?
As large as old Goliath was,
His spear a hundred weight?
No, no my son, not near as large
As William Allen White,
'Tis not his stature makes him great,
His pen gives him his might.
What battles, Pa, did Henry win—
Was Foch upon his staff?
And Haig and General Pershing, too,
What gore did Henry quaff?
No, no my son, when Henry sailed
Across the seas to France
He took along his trusty pen,
But had no sword or lance.
If Henry won no battle, Pa,
And never fired a gun,
Who was it won the victory,
And whipped the cowardly Hun?
Well, well, my son, Americans
Thot doughboys turned the trick,
'Till Henry proved with trusty pen,
They never struck a lick.
What was Jack Pershing doing, Pa,
And our two million men?
If Henry Allen had been chief,
Would it been different then?
Nay, nay, my son, the victory's won,
And all of us can cheer
But Hnery, like a kicking mule,
Fights best from the rear.

AT SCHOOL MEETING

MEMBERS OF RURAL BOARDS CUSS SCHOOL PROBLEM

RURAL INSPECTOR HERE

H. H. Harriwood Delivers an Interesting Address—Pupils Give Demonstration.

Members of the rural school boards of the country are in annual session today at the court houses and despite the bad roads a large number are in attendance. A program which included discussions of school problems occupied the morning hours with this afternoon devoted to short talks by board members and witnessing a demonstration of vitalized agriculture by pupils of some of the schools.

An interesting address this afternoon by H. H. Harriwood, state inspector of rural schools. Mr. Harriwood said the rural school board was clothed with more power, if it cared to use it, thany any other organization in the county, pointing out that they were in position to direct the control of the boys and girls before they came into contact with other things. Mr. Harriwood took occasion to compliment Superintendent Cooper on the work he has done and said the Nodaway county superintendent had a reputation among the county school superintendents of the state and state officers of a man who was doing things and getting out of the beaten path in such a way as was proving for the advancement of the pupils of the schools.

The demonstration in vitalized agriculture occupied more than an hour and those who saw the rope tying and splicing, the measuring, the drying process for fruits and vegetables, the carpentry, etc., commented freely on the practicability and value of the new method.

D. A. R. PLAY WAS ENJOYABLE

Large Audience Saw "Betsey aHll" and Other Features of Good Program at Empire Last Night.

"Betsey Hall," presented by the ladies of the D. A. R., at the Empire theatre last night afforded a large audience plenty of entertainment, introducing in pantomine stately colonial dames and damsels and bewigged gentlemen who "acted out" the play in a most delightful manner. The play was followed by a melange of features, patriotic and otherwise, that gave variety to the performance. In the absence of the spoken word the handsome costumes were causes fr much comment, and the intermingling of silk and satin gowns with the bright hued apparel of the gentlemen made a kaleideoscope of color especially in the old fashioned minuet and dances, the latter being the most popular numbers of the evening.

Patriotic tableux which included everything from the Red Cross and Salvation Army to Joan of Arc and the Spirit of '61 were well presented and evoked much applause.

Sixty people participated in the production, the D. A. R. ladies being assisted by members of the Zero club.

WILSON IS DEFIANT

THROWS DOWN GAUNTLET TO OPPONENTS OF LEAGUE PLAN

ASKS PEOPLE TO DECIDE

Test of American Sentiment Will Clear All Doubts as To Its Acceptability, He Asserts.

Boston, Feb. 25.—President Wilson in his first speech here yesterday afternoon on landing from France invited the critics of the league of nations plan to "test the sentiment of America." Men he declared who would have America fail the world in its hopes, saw only beyond the nearest horizon.

"They do not know the sentiment of America," he said.

Speaking of hopes and aspirations of the people of Europe for a lasting peace, which he said, were pointed to the United States, and the "friend of mankind," the President said he had no more doubt of "the verdict of America in this matter than I have doubt of the blood that is in me."

The nations of the world have set their heads now to do a great thing and they are not going to stop short of their purpose. "I do not speak of the governments, but of the peoples who will see that if their present governments do not do their will, some others will. And the secret is out and the present governments know it.

"I have come back for an attempt to transact business for a little while in America, but I say in all soberness that I have been trying to speak your thoughts. Probing deep in my heart and trying to see the things that are right rather than the things that are expedient, I am finding the heart of America.

"I invite him to test the sentiments of the nation. We set this up to make men free and we did not confine our conception and purpose to America, and now we will make men free. If we did not do that the fame of America would be gone and all her powers would be dissipated. She then would have to keep her power for those narrow, selfish provincial purposes which seem so dear to some minds that have no sweep beyond the nearest horizon. I should welcome no sweeter challenge than that. I have fighting blood in me and it is sometimes a delight to let it have scope, but if it is a challenge on this occasion it will be an indulgence. Think of the picture, think of the utter blackness that would fall on the world. America has failed! America made a little essay at generosity, and then withdrew! America said, 'We are your friends,' but it was only for today, not tomorrow. America said, 'Here is our power to vindicate right!' and then the next day said, 'Let right take care of itself and we will take care of ourselves.'" America said, 'We set up a light to lead men along the paths of liberty, but we have lowered it. It is intended only to light our own path.' We set up a great deal of liberty and then we said, 'Liberty is a thing that you must win for yourself. Do not call upon us,' and think of the world that we would leave. Do you realize how many new nations are going to be set up in the presence of old and powerful nations in Europe and left there, if left by us, without a disinterested friend?

"Do you believe in the Polish cause, as I do? Are you going to set up Poland, immature, inexperienced, as yet unorganized and leave her with a circle of armies around her? Do you believe in the aspiration of the Czecho-Slovaks and the Jugo-Slavs, as I do? Do you know how many powers would be quick to pounce upon them if there were not the guarantees of the world behind their liberty?

"Have you thought of the suffering of Armenia? You poured out your money to help succor the Armenians after they suffered; now set your strength so that they shall never suffer again.

"The arrangements of the present peace cannot stand a generation unless they are guaranteed by the united forces of the civilized world. And if we do not guarantee them, cannot you see the picture? Your hearts have instructed you where the burden of this war fell. It did not fall upon the national treasuries; it did not fall upon the instruments of administration; it did not fall upon the resources of the nations. It fell upon the victims' homes everywhere, where women were toiling in hope that their men would come back."

HUNT TAX-DODGERS

REVENUE DEP'T. HAS NO RELIEF FOR VIOLATORS

ROUND UP DELINQUENTS

A Large Staff Is Maintained to Classify Those Who Fail to Fulfill Their Obligations to Uncle Sam

Washington, Feb. 21.—How does Uncle Sam deal with tax-dodgers? This inquiry, which was promoted by the severe penalties provided in the new revenue bill, has brought from Commissioner Daniel C. Roper a frank statement as to the Internal Revenue Bureau's attitude toward those who attempt to evade taxation.

"Any person who deliberately conceals tax liability, or who falsifies a return in order to reduce or evade any internal revenue tax, or who deliberately abets such concealment or fraud, finds arrayed against him the entire strength of this Bureau pressing for the full civil and criminal penalties. That is the attitude toward the tax-dodger, expressed in one sentence. Whether he is a moonshiner, a stealthy trafficker in habit-forming drugs, a juggler of income figures, a delinquent in making the sworn return the law requires, or a revenue violator of any other kind, the Bureau is charged with the duty of hunting him out and exacting the full punishment provided in the law.

"Toward the taxpayer who means to comply with the internal revenue laws, fully and honestly, the Bureau extends a helping hand. Cooperation with the taxpayer is our watchword and objective.

"These two contracts—the teeth of the law for the taxdodger and the violator, and the aid of every lawful agency for the voluntary taxpayer—are policies necessary to the administration of tax laws under modern conditions.

"One of the most difficult of the many problems in tax collecting is to classify those who fail to fulfil the obligations imposed by law. The Bureau is obliged to maintain a large staff and to use the utmost discretion in properly labeling these cases. Even handed justice is a heavy responsibility, and only through careful siftings can delinquents be classified.

"There are three distinct classes of delinquency with which we have to deal. First, the taxpayer who had reasonable cause, brought about by exceptional condtions beyond his control; secondly, the fellow who didn't look up or didn't realize his obligations; and thirdly, the person who wilfully evaded compliance with the law.

"As for the man who shows a reasonable cause within certain lines established by the Bureau, no penalties are asserted. All other delinquents are more carefully investigated before prosecution is begun. Many of these offenses are caused by ignorance and negligence. Failure to make the reports required by law may in some cases warrant severe penalty, as where the delinquent continues his delinquency after being warned of the penalty for failure to make return. However, if the delinquent takes immediate corrective action, and it is clearly established through investigation that he did not wilfully violate the law, the Bureaeu allows him to compromise his liability to specific penalty by teendering a nominal sum of money. In such instances the money is not really in compromise, but assesesd to impress the taxpayer against future violations.

"But there is no relief, no compromise, for the man who wilfully evades, wilfully neglects, or wilfully falsifies. He is classed with other law breakers in the eyes of the Bureau, and is vigorously prosecuted in the courts. No other course is open to the Bureau, in meeting fairly and squarely the demand of the willing taxpayer, "I will, the other man must." There is a solemn responsibility thus existing between the honest taxpayer and the Bureau to locate and punish the dishonest taxdodger.

"And it is such a big thing that the willing taxpayer must have the guarantee of this Bureau that the laggards, the jugglers and the violators will not escape taxation and penalties. The Bureau is fulfilling its part of this contract with the people—this contract that means so much in the practical, effective and just administration of the Internal Revenue laws."

Funny, isn't it, that coal instead of going to the buyer goes to the cellar.

Also, the League of Matrons should meet once each year to help make the world safe for matrimony.

Cheer up, nothing in this life laste eternally. Maybe your luck will change.

We sometimes hear a man say he is doing two men's work. He is either a liar or a chump, maybe both.

The bird in the gilded cage may not be near as sweet a singer, but it always gets more attention than the one in an iron cage.

Sent in: A woman who gives a party is a fool; I have given my last one. I never have a good time at my own party. I have to slave to get ready and am constantly on a nervous strain for fear something will be not just right; and then when the guests are sitting around enjoying themselves, I have to be on the go. If I approach a group of them, they cease talking and that makes me think they are talking about me or my arrangements. Then after it is all over and the guests depart, I have to slave again. I have given my last party.

It seems easy enough for a town to be good when the grand jury and court are in session. Same way when a revival meeting is in progress. When they pass on the old town relapses into the old rut pretty much.

From a seed catalog we learn that "carrots can be left in the ground all winter if properly cared for." So far as this colm is concerned they can be left in the ground all winter and summer without any protest from us.

From a circular that weekly makes its appearance on our desk, coming from the brewer's league, it is asserted that "you never see a real lazy man intoxicated." Sure not. It fakes a real, hustling, energetic man to get enough these days on which to get intoxicated. No lazy man need apply.

"Not one woman in fifty can repeat the Ten Commandments," declared an old bachelor. Well, what if they can't They can enforce 'em, can't they?

You may think you have lots of trouble, but suppose you were a farmer and had to use a party telephone line?—Sent in.

Of course, it's bone dry in Maryville therefore this story. Although his wife herself tells it on her husband, surely it did not happen here. But we refuse to doubt the word of a lady, so here it is. The family lives on—well, maybe the number of the street should not be mentioned—but anyway, there is a baby four months old in the family and it has been crying a good deal at nights lately. The other night Husband went to "lodge" and returned in the early morning somewhat the worse for his entertainment. He dreaded an interview with his wife, and as he entered the home, slipped off his shoes and, seeing the baby cradle, was inspired. He sat down and began vigorously rocking the cradle, thinking when his wife awakened she would believe he was caring for his offspring. She heard him crooning and asked him what he was doing. "I have been here two hours trying to get the baby to sleep," he explained. "That's funny," she sneered. "The baby's here in bed with me."

Women talk much about the "prevailing style of hats." Now, what we want is a little light on the subject. Frinstance, today two women came into the office, each wearing a new lid, 1919 spring model. One turned up at the rear very pronouncedly, with a great feather sticking straight up behind, worn well down in front, cut bias, with a wide running board on the left side; the other reared up in front, worn well down in the back, narrow running board on the left, wide feather hanging at half mast over the starboard side. The two were in direct opposition, yet we were told by each lady that her's was the latest style this spring.

Talking about celebrating Father Son week. Harking back to our childhood days we can remember when "father and son" week was celebrated in the woodshed and was a very "formal" meeting. The occasion was celebrated about once a week, on an average.

"Why does a hen want to cross the road in front of a motor car?" asked an inquirer. She wants to cross for the same reason she wants to cross at any other time, only the notion strikes her quicker.

A married man knows exactly what lodges were put on earth for. They were invented by some married man who wanted an excuse to get down town in the evening.

A stout woman's greatest satisfaction comes from the fact that she knows some other woman who is stouter.

It must be humiliating to a woman to have a husband who boasts of being "boss" around home when down town he is regarded as a first class dub.

CLUB TO MARKET FARM PRODUCT

LaFayette County Farmers Co-operate in Buying and Selling.

Lexington, Mo., Feb. 24.—The farmers of LaFayette county have organized twenty-one farm clubs to aid them in marketing their products and in the purchase of supplies.

The agent of the county's farm bureau secures quotations on commodities needed by the members and compiles exchange lists for the farmers of the county. These are either forwarded direct to the individuals or are presented at the regular meetings of the clubs. In case a local club is unable to use an entire car of any desired commodity, their delegates to the county association, which meets once a month, are instructed to combine their orders with those reported by other delegates. In this way car lot orders are made up and the members share equally in the benefits derived.

County Agent F. W. Caldwell reports that many cars of corn, barley feed, mill feed, cotton seed cake, oil meal, salt, twine, and fertilizer have been ordered, and smaller quantities of alfalfa seed, clover seed, seed corn, seed wheat, soy beans and cowpeas purchasd. Carloads of hogs, cattle, and sheep have been made up for shipment to market and wool pooled and marketed. Markets for apples have been located by the bureau's agents, and it is expected that this service will soon be extended to include poultry, eggs and dairy products.

NEWS FROM NODAWAY COUNTY TOWNS

The Barnard Mercantile Co. traded 157 acres near Cawood known as the Hackadorn farm to S. E. Richards, taking in on the deal the 30 acre farm known as the Oda Hubble farm and a 40 acres formerly owned by W. B. Torrance.

D. Beardsley of Parnell expects to load a car the latter part of this week for Ideal, S. Dakota, where they expect to move and make their future home. C. H. Reece and family will also move to Colome, same state, where they expect to reside in the future. Mr. Reece is already there. These are two most estimable families and will be greatly missed in this community, but their many friends will wish them prosperity in their new home.

L. V. Arnold of Parnell received from his son, George, who is in Germany, a German officer's helmet yesterday. On the front of the helmet is inscribed the words, "Mi-Fur Koenig Und-Vaterland." On the inside is written in ink the words "Leschert, Comando," possibly the officer's name. The helmet is of patent leather and well made. George speaks of sending the helmet in a letter to his father which appears in this issue.

Fred Lyle of Ravenwood received a letter Tuesday from his son, Norvel, who is still on the U. S. S. Pennsylvania and floundering in waters of the Atlantic off the south coast of cuba. He tells that the boys are now sleeping on the upper deck and enjoying the warm days immensely. He says he had not seen so many palm trees and that in every respect there was summer.

Norvel says that all of the boys want to get away from the service, now that the task that they wanted a share in has been finished. The fleet has assembled in the southern waters to have annual practice.

Uncle Ed Stuart presented the Ravenwood Gazette editor with a piece of Mexican money used a couple of years ago by Villa and his gang. It was sent to him by his nephew, C. B. Shane, who runs an engine on one of the railroads out of the mines. While it was worth fifty cents to them it would be hard to get anything out of a carload of it now.

J. B. Joy of Buena Vista, Colo., and son, Andy Joy, recently in the aviation service, came to Elmo Thursday evening, on No. 3. Mr. Joy and Andy both were looking well. Andy was discharged from the service Wednesday. He was at Kelley Field, Texas.

A deal has been made by which Mrs. Anne Neff becomes the owner of what used to be known as the Dr. Collings property in Elmo, consisting of a house and six lots. This deal makes Mrs. Neff the owner of ten lots in the block. It is understood that Mrs. Neff will build a new house this season, on or near the site of the old one.

Rola B. Fleming visited in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fleming of Hopkins, from Thursday until Monday. Rolla has been connected with the military police of the 8th Division which has just been demobilized at Camp Dodge. He has already resumed his position as night agent in the Creston freight house.

Through the agency of Frank Melick the Fred Wooldridge property in Hopkins was sold this week to Dr. S. D. Large the consideration being $6,250, Fred taking the brick business house occupied by the Owl Pharmacy at $4,000. Dr. Large gets possession of his new home the first of next month and Mr. Wooldridge and family will occupy rooms over the Wooldridge clothing store until suitable property can be secured.

The Thrift Loan—

has been emphasized during the past two years by Uncle Sam to the extent that Americans are learning to save. It is a good habit and formed early will lead to success, to affluence.

Has It Ever—

occured to you that the MARYVILLE HOMESTEAD & LOAN ASSOCIATION could get you started saving in a way that is not only easy, but which will prove its own value.

A few dollars saved each month and put into share of stock—or, if you prefer, as a payment on a home of your own—gives you a profit each year. Hundreds of the best citizens of Maryville started in a small way by investing in shares of stock which they later saw turned into substantial home of their own. The more you add to it, the more it keeps growing.

It is the safe and satisfactory way for the salaried man, to begin the saving habit with a view to gaining a competence—something to fall back on in times of emergency.

For the man of means it is a safe and secure investment that will bring a good return.

You will be surprised at the advantages that are offered by our plan. It has been a success for hundreds during the past twenty-five year—it cannot but help being a success for you.

GREAT FRENCH SACRIFICE CALLS FOR WORLD'S GRATITUDE.

The French have suffered and bled more than any other nation at war. Of her 36 million population, 6 million were placed in the trenches and have poured out their blood on the altar of Liberty. America will ever remember this heroic sacrifice. It is likewise not unmindful of the great service to the world rendered by the French peasants who have given it a perfect remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal disorders, which is reported to have relieved incalculable suffering, saved thousands of lives and prevented innumerable surgical operations. Geo. H. Mayr, prominent Chicago chemist, imports and sells it in this country under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucous from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Maryville Drug Co. and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

WOULD DECORATE WOMEN

Congress May Give President Power to Honor Workers.

Agitation begun in Congress may result in giving the President power to decorate women who have rendered valiant service in the war. That action had not been taken before has come as a surprise and senators who advocated the measure say the matter has been overlooked.

Besides the conferring of medals other honors would be given women who remain in the service, according to plans already voiced. Military nurses would be given military ranking. The opinion has been given that some of the war workers should receive even the congressional medal of honor, the distribution of which is guarded with utmost jealousy.

Real Estate Dealers Urge Proposed Recording Bill.

Jefferson City, Feb. 20.—Forest C. Donnell of St. Louis, representing the Real Estate Loan Dealers' Association of Missouri, and delegations from Kansas City and St. Louis appeared before the senate and ways means committee yesterday afternoon and urged the enactment of the mortgage tax recording law.

Speaking for the association, Donnell said the measure introduced in the senate by Senator Harris of Boone met with the approval of all theh real estate loan dealers in Missouri. In lieu of all other taxes it is proposed to have notes secured by mortgages on Missouri real estate recorded and pay over a period of five years at the rate of 15 cents per $100. Counties are authorized to levy a similar tax of five cents, cities 3 and schools 3. The tax must be paid when the notes are recorded and notes that are not recordedare made noncollectable. In cases where notes are renewed, the same tax must be paid at the time of renewal. This tax is in lieu of all other forms of taxation. If a note runs for ten years, it will pay the same tax as if it was due in half that period of time. The state tax is 4 cents on the $100, and the county, city and school taxes would make the total tax but 15 cents on the $100, over a period of five years.

Pershing Changed His Religion.

From the Indianapolis News.

General Pershing was understood to be a Presbyterian, but according to published reports he has lately been confirmed as a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church. The Living Church states that the confirmation service took place in France and was conducted by the Right Rev. Charles H. Brent, bishop of Western New Yor.

It is said that General Pershing desired to unite with the Episcopal Church in memory of his wife, who was of that faith. She and their three daughters lost their lives in a fire at the Presidio military buildings at San Francisco August 27, 1915.

Our Soldier Dead.

"In Flanders field, where poppies blow,"
In France where beauteous roses grow
There let them rest—forever sleep,
While we eternal vigil keep
With our heart's love—with our soul's pray'r,
For all our Fallen, "Over There,"

The sounding sea between us rolls
And in perpetual requiem tolls—
Three thousand miles of cheerless space
Lit 'twixt us and their resting place;
'Twas God who took them by the hand
And left them in the stranger land.

The earth is sacred where they fell—
Forever on it lies the spell
Of hero deeds in Freedom's cause,
And men unborn shall come and pause
To say a prayer or bow the head,
So leave these graves to hold their dead.

Let not our sighing nor our tears
Fall on them thru the coming years,
Who on the land, on sea, in air,
With dauntless courage everywhere,
Their home and country glorified—
Stood to their arms, and smiling died.
Great France will leave no need nor room

That we place flowers on their tomb—
And proudly o'er their resting place,
Will float forever in its grace,
O'er cross, and star, and symbol tag,
Their own beloved country's Flag.

The morning sun will gild with light,
The stars keep holy watch at night,
The Winter spread soft pall of snow,
The Summer flowers about them grow,
The sweet birds sing their Springtime call,
God's love and mercy guard them all.
—Annette Kohn.

Oh, Henry!

How big is Henry Allen, Pa,
Who hails from Kansas state?
As large as old Goliath was,
His spear a hundred weight?
No, no my son, not near as large
As William Allen White,
'Tis not his stature makes him great,
His pen gives him his might.
What battles, Pa, did Henry win—
Was Foch upon his staff?
And Haig and General Pershing, too,
What gore did Henry quaff?
No, no my son, when Henry sailed
Across the seas to France
He took along his trusty pen,
But had no sword or lance.
If Henry won no battle, Pa,
And never fired a gun,
Who was it won the victory,
And whipped the cowardly Hun?
Well, well, my son, Americans
Thot doughboys turned the trick.
'Till Henry proved with trusty pen,
They never struck a lick.
What was Jack Pershing doing, Pa,
And our two million men?
If Henry Allen had been chief,
Would it been different then?
Nay, nay, my son, the victory's won,
And all of us can cheer
But Hnery, like a kicking mule,
Fights best from the rear.
